In what ways did this morning's macro sermon of Revelation 21-22 encourage and/or strengthen your heart, Christian listener? How should an unbeliever respond to the truth that was proclaimed this morning? (Romans 2:4)

How does the Genesis 3 curse impact your life on a day to day basis? How has sin and the curse impacted any vacations you've taken? Answer specifically. Revelation 22:3
Note Genesis 3:14-4:16.

Many of the great songs on heaven/glory were sung by Christian slaves during the tragic slavery era in the 18th and 19th centuries. What do you think of the following biblical principle, "Our very best day on earth below is nothing compared to an ordinary day in heaven above!?!"

How should the heavenly "no more's" help God's people to process and get through national tragedies, seasons of intense religious persecution against believers, and/or personal nightmares? Think about 9-11-01, or the Parkland, Florida shooting, or the religious persecution of Kim Davis, or _____ in the light of this morning's sermon.

"You will stumble occasionally, you may fall occasionally, you may get knocked down occasionally, but always get up facing heaven."
